

OPENING DOORS TO YOUR FUTURE
Independent teacher

NO OTHER EDUCATION UNION OFFERS AS MUCH CPD

Join the biggest union in the independent sector

ATL represents more than 21,000 teachers and support staff working in independent schools across the UK.

By joining ATL you will have peace of mind knowing that first-class support, professional advice and representation is always available, as is insurance cover and personal injury protection.

We are recognised by more independent sector employers than any other union and you will have access to free publications, resources, website www.atl.org.uk, award-winning member magazine Report and more CPD for your personal and professional development than any other union.

Only ATL offers all of the following to members working in the independent sector:

- Staff solely dedicated to the independent sector
- An elected member advisory group
- Our termly newsletter, Independent schools
- An annual Independent Schools Conference
- Sector specific publications and campaigns
- Tailored training courses
- Strong links with independent sector employer associations

And with 50% off your first year's membership, you won't find a better union.
