

Special offer
Join now and receive 50% off your first year's subscription fee*

Join AMiE

Providing a specialist
service for school
leaders and managers

- Headteachers ● Deputy Headteachers ● Assistant Headteachers ● Senior Business Managers
- Bursars ● Members of senior leadership team

We understand that as your career progresses, you need a different level of support, guidance and legal protection.

AMiE is here to help you manage the demands of being a leader and a manager.

Join online at www.amie.uk.com
or call 01858 411 541

For subscription details and further information on AMiE, please visit our website.

If you are already an ATL member and have recently moved into a leadership role, contact us on the above number to ensure that you are registered as an AMiE member** and eligible to use these services.

* Applicable to new ATL/AMiE members only **Additional subscription fee applies – for further information see our website

Our service includes:

- direct access to a team of regional officers dedicated to dealing with leaders and managers
- a confidential helpline for you to use in your capacity as a professional manager or as an employee with a workplace problem
- peer-to-peer support through networking and online forums
- a range of publications and courses sharply focused on contemporary management issues
- education news updates direct to your desktop
- a dedicated leadership council that considers and debates key educational issues, providing a comprehensive view from a leadership perspective
- policy influence in political circles
- good deals on insurance and other services.

AMiE is the leadership section of

